Vincent Hardman's views on Frazier Preparatory Academy- I was born and raised in the Lawndale community and I continue to reside in Lawndale. As an active board member of Frazier Preparatory Academy it provides me the opportunity to add value to my neighbourhood and the children who reside within.

Personal Mission/Vision- My personal mission and vision is to provide the best possible opportunity and environment to the youth on the Westside of Chicago in hopes to extend the value of their education and career success. I want them to know that they can derive from the Lawndale community and become successful productive members of society.

Education: MBA, De Paul University 1995,
